(c) whether the Central Government have extended an financial help as a support to this rehabilitation programme afforded by the State Government;

(d) if so, details thereof; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ANNASAHEB M.K. PATIL) (a) to (e) Land and its management falls under the exclusive administrative and legislative jurisdiction of the State Governments under Entry No. 18, List II (State List) of the Seventh Schedule of the Constitution of India. The Union Government plays only an advisory and coordinating role in this field.

This Ministry receives cumulative and not year-wise information about allotment of land. Under ceiling surplus land, upto 31.3.2003 an area of 52.94 lakh acres of land has been distributed to 56.73 lakh rural landless families. 147.47 lakh acres of Government wasteland have been distributed to rural landless families while under Bhoodan land an area of 21.75 lakh acres of land has been distributed to landless rural poor. Under these programmes no financial assistance is provided by this Ministry to the States.

Role of Local bodies in Rajiv Gandhi National Drinking Water Mission

1685. SHRI A. VIJAYARAGHAVAN: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Eighth Plan outlined an enhanced role for local bodies in the Rajiv Gandhi National Drinking Water Mission (RGNDWM);

(b) if so, details of RGNDWM missioned through local bodies for last three years, year-wise, state-wise and category-wise; and

(c) the details of grant received and utilized along with task under taken by RGNDWM on data collection and assessment of water availability, estimation of recharging potential for ground water regimes, designing rain water harvesting structures and enlisting community participation for decentralized water management, for last three years, state-wise, category-wise and year-wise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ANNA SAHEB M.K. PATIL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Water is a State subject. Government of India supplements the efforts of the states by rendering financial assistance under a Centrally Sponsored Scheme namely Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programe (ARWSP). The programme has been revamped to institutionalise commuity based, demand driven Rural Water Supply programme. 20% of the outlay under ARWSP is earmarked for implementing projects based on the following three basic reform principles:

* adoption of a demand-responsive and adaptable approach based on empowerment of villagers to ensure their full participation in the project through a decision making role in the choice of scheme design, control of finances and management arrangements.
* Shifting of role of Government from direct service delivery to that of planning, policy formulation, monitoring and evaluation and partial financial support.
* Partial capital cost sharing, either in cash or kind or both, and 100% responsibility of O and M by users.

The powers to plan, sanction, implement and execute rural water supply schemes vest with State Governments. States can utilize ARWSP funds, inter-alia, on assessment of water availability, estimation of recharging potential for ground water regimes, designing rainwater-harvesting structures etc. The details of the amount utilised separately for these aspects by States are not maintained at the Central level. The State-wise details of the amount released during the last three years are given in the statement.
